BEAT HIS WIFE UNTO DEATH.

other Republican city and county nyminees to file procests with the County Clerk, against keynolds using their names with his own on the official ballot. The only Republican who defied the boss was Camdon T. Dike, the nominee for City Comptroller. Dike is after votes, and he does not refuse to have his name on any independent ticket.

Mr. Nathan is pushing the fight against Willis men all along the line. Through influence at National beadquarters he has succeeded in inducing the Republican Presidential electors on the State ticket to file a profest with the Secretary of State against the use of their names on the independent ticket with Reynolds.

The Nathan adherents are jubilant to-day over their chief's latest move. They look upon it as Reynolds's political death blow.

"No party man will vote for Reynolds now," said a Republican this morning. "It would be nonsense to suppose that a man would vote a bailot with only two names printed on it. Dike is mignty sorry to-day that he didn't stand by the regular ticket, and he wishes he could prevent keynolds from using his name. But it makes no real difference, because he cannot be cleected any-how."

Friends of Mr. Reynolds do not look at it. Mrs. Annie Herzog, of 382 Bushwick avenue, is in a dangerous condition at the home of her brother, 347 Hudson avenue,

Her husband, Andrew, was in the Lec Avenue Police Court this morning charged with murderous assault, and was held to await the result of his wife's injuries.

For some time past the prisoner, it is alleged, has been dissipated and frequently abused his wife. Last Sunday it is charged he beat her and knocked her down. She was soon to become a mother.

Herzog is thirty years of age, and was at one time quite wealthy.

To an EVENING WORLD reporter Herzog said this morning.

For some time past the prisoner, it is difference, because he cannot be elected any-how."

Friends of Mr. Reynolds do not look at it that way. They declare that the last move by Nathan has made the contest more bitter than ever, and they will follow their leader.

"Should the National ticket suffer, the blame will rest upon Nathan," said one. "We intended to vote for the nepublican electors, but as Nathan has prevented their hanes from going on the ticket I will not say any-thing as to what may be the result. I make no threats, but if the National ticket does suffer it will be the fault of Nathan."

Mr. Reynolds declares that he is in the race to stay, find he says he will get more votes than Wagner. Reynolds is very popular and his rifends say that he can count upon a following of 2,5.00 voters.

Some time past the mother of the early will be another. The rest of the row of those who vote for Reynolds will use pasters in the interest of the other Republican candidates, while there are others who will not put them on.

Democrats are standing by, smiling. While the fight is going on in the Republican camp they are working hard to elect Walter L. Durack, the Democratic nominee, and they say they'll do it.
